

REPORT ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

Report Submission: 20 August 2025

Semester: ODD

Date: 15 August 2025

Academic Year :2025 – 26

Time: 08:30 AM – 10:30 AM

Venue: Basketball Court

Duration: 2 hrs

TYPE OF EVENT: National Celebration

Target Audience: Staff, NCC Cadets & Students

Number of Participant: 85

Objectives:

The primary objective of the Independence Day Celebration organized by Acharya NCC, 05/09 Coy, at Acharya Institute of Graduate Studies was to honor the spirit of freedom and commemorate the day when India gained independence after years of struggle and sacrifice. The event sought to instill in students and cadets a deep sense of patriotism, unity, and respect for the nation, while reinforcing the values of discipline, responsibility, and service to the motherland.

The celebration also aimed to provide a platform for NCC cadets to showcase their training, discipline, and teamwork through activities such as the Guard of Honour, drill displays, parade, cane drill, and human pyramid formation. These performances not only highlighted the physical fitness and synchronization of the cadets but also reflected their dedication to the ideals of courage and perseverance.

Alongside, the cultural performances by students were intended to celebrate India's diversity and heritage, fostering a collective spirit of national pride. By inviting Wing Commander Anil Kumar Singha as the chief guest, the event further emphasized the significance of military service in safeguarding the nation's sovereignty. Overall, the celebration sought to inspire the younger generation to uphold democratic values, unity, and unwavering devotion to the nation.

Detailed Report on Kargil Vijay Diwas:

Event Overview:

The Independence Day Celebration 2025 at Acharya Institute of Graduate Studies was organized by Acharya NCC, 05/09 Coy, 9 Karnataka Battalion, with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor. The event commenced promptly at 8:30 AM at the college basketball court, in the presence of the chief guest, Wing Commander Anil Kumar Singha, along with faculty members, staff, students, and NCC cadets.

The program began with the Guard of Honour, presented by nine NCC cadets,

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade and Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

05/09COY,9KARBN,BANGALORE-BGROUP
KARNATAKA&GOADTE

showcasing discipline and precision. Following this, the chief guest was escorted and piloted to the flag post, where the National Flag was hoisted. The hoisting was accompanied by a dignified Salaami Shastra by the Guard, filling the atmosphere with respect and national pride.

This was followed by a march past and drill display by the NCC cadets, performed in perfect coordination with the NCC band. The rhythmic steps and commands reflected the training, discipline, and unity of the cadets, leaving a lasting impression on the audience. The formal proceedings transitioned into cultural programs, beginning with a dance performance by NCC cadets, followed by a series of patriotic songs and dances by college students, which celebrated the diversity and cultural richness of India. The highlight of the event was the Human Pyramid Formation by NCC cadets, symbolizing strength, teamwork, and perseverance. Further cultural performances added vibrancy and energy to the celebration.

The final NCC display was the Cane Drill, which demonstrated coordination, confidence, and sharp movements, reflecting the rigorous training of cadets. The program concluded with a vote of thanks, where appreciation was extended to the chief guest, and a memento was presented by the Principal as a token of gratitude.

The event successfully combined patriotic spirit, military discipline, and cultural expression, leaving the audience inspired and reminding everyone of the significance of India's Independence Day.

Conclusion:

The Independence Day Celebration at Acharya Institute of Graduate Studies, organized by Acharya NCC, 05/09 Coy, was a resounding success and truly reflected the spirit of patriotism and unity. The active participation of NCC cadets, faculty, staff, and students created an atmosphere of pride and reverence for the nation. The Guard of Honour, parade, and drill performances highlighted the discipline and dedication of the cadets, while the cultural programs added vibrancy and showcased India's diversity.

The presence of Wing Commander Anil Kumar Singha as the chief guest enriched the event, inspiring students with his experience and words of encouragement. His gracious participation served as a reminder of the sacrifices made by the armed forces in safeguarding the nation's freedom and sovereignty.

The celebration not only honored India's independence but also instilled values of duty, responsibility, and devotion to the motherland among the younger generation. It served as a reminder of the struggles of the past, the importance of unity in the present, and the responsibility we all carry towards building a strong future for the nation.

Overall, the event was a meaningful tribute to India's freedom and an inspiring occasion that reinforced national pride in every attendee.

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade and Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

05/09 COY, 9 KARBN, BANGALORE-BGROUP
KARNATAKA & GOADTE

Outcomes:

The Independence Day Celebration 2025 at Acharya Institute of Graduate Studies achieved its intended objectives with remarkable success. The event fostered a deep sense of patriotism and national pride among the students, faculty, staff, and NCC cadets, reminding everyone of the significance of India's independence.

For the NCC cadets, the program served as a practical platform to demonstrate their training, discipline, and coordination through activities such as the Guard of Honour, parade, human pyramid, and cane drill. These performances not only enhanced their confidence but also inspired their peers to value dedication, teamwork, and perseverance. The involvement of college students in cultural programs further enriched the celebration by highlighting India's cultural diversity and instilling a spirit of unity in diversity. Their enthusiastic participation made the event more engaging and inclusive.

The presence of Wing Commander Anil Kumar Singha as the chief guest was particularly impactful. His participation and interaction with the cadets and students provided invaluable inspiration, reinforcing the importance of service, sacrifice, and responsibility towards the nation.

Overall, the celebration resulted in:

- Strengthening the patriotic spirit among all attendees.
- Enhancing the discipline, teamwork, and leadership qualities of NCC cadets.
- Promoting student engagement through cultural performances.
- Creating an opportunity for interaction with a distinguished defence officer, leaving a lasting motivational impact.

Thus, the event successfully met its objectives by combining military discipline with cultural expression, leaving the entire Acharya community inspired to uphold the values of freedom, unity, and service to the nation.

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade and Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

05/09 COY, 9 KARBN, BANGALORE-BGROUP
KARNATAKA & GOADTE

Event Photos

Guard of honour by NCC Cadets

Flag hoisting ceremony

Drill and Parade by NCC cadets

Band

Dance by NCC Cadets

Human pyramid by NCC Cadets

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade and Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

05/09COY,9KARBN,BANGALORE-BGROUP
KARNATAKA&GOADTE

Cane drill by NCC Cadets

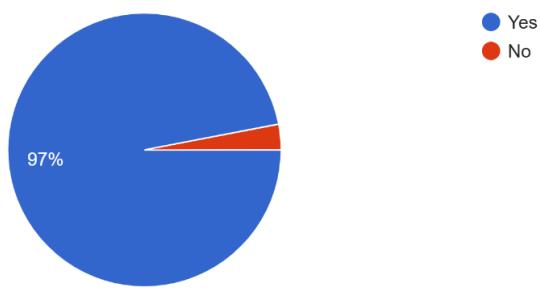

Group photo

EVENT FEEDBACK:

Were the objectives and outcomes of the program clearly communicated to you?

33 responses

97% of participants clearly understood the outcomes of the program.

ACHARYA INSTITUTE OF GRADUATE STUDIES

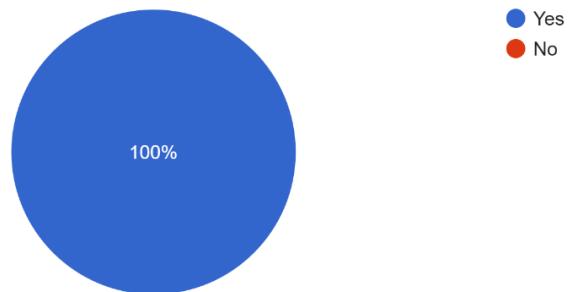

(NAAC Re-Accredited 'A' Grade and Affiliated to Bengaluru City University)

05/09COY,9KARBN,BANGALORE-BGROUP
KARNATAKA&GOADTE

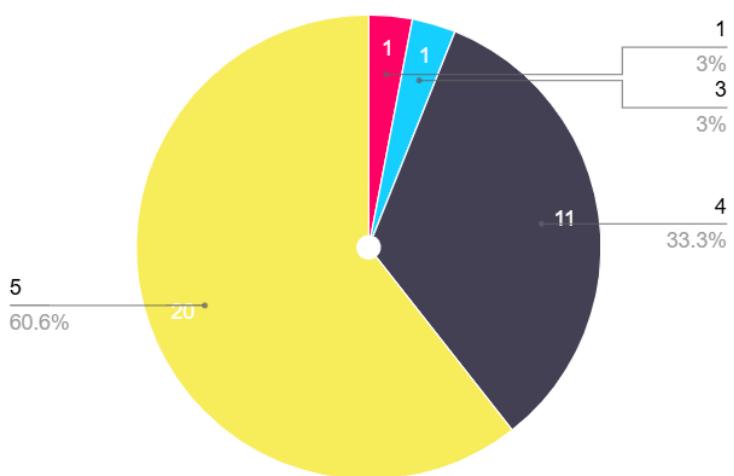

Did the program meet the objectives of organizing the event?

33 responses

All participants felt the objectives of the event were met by the program.

How would you rate the overall event on a scale of 1 to 5?

60% of participants rated the event 5 (Very good).

33.3% of participants rated the event 4 (Good).

3% of participants rated the event 3 (Average).

3% of participants rated the event 1 (Not good at all).